

URGENT APPEAL TO ADVENTISTS AND OTHER CHRISTIANS

www.end-times-prophecy.org

Dear friend. The information on this page is of vital importance and I urge you to humbly and carefully read it and ask God to show you the truth, because there is a great deception that has spread throughout all the churches. If you continue to follow your church, rather than the information and truth on this page and continue to put your denomination before God's truth, then you are placing your salvation on very fragile ground. Satan is deceiving the world into taking either the mark OR name OR number of the beast, and this issue is tied into this deception.

Divine vision given to John ... 'And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it. And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.' (Revelation 21:22-23)

Divine revelation given to Sister White ... "The king of the universe summoned the heavenly hosts before Him, that in their presence He might set forth the true position of His Son and show the relation He sustained to all created beings. The Son of God shared the Father's throne, and the glory of the eternal, self-existent One encircled both ... before the assembled inhabitants of heaven the king declared that none but Christ, the only begotten of God, could fully enter into His purposes, and to Him it was committed to execute the mighty counsels of His will. The Son of God had wrought the Father's will in the creation of all the hosts of heaven; and to Him, as well as to God, their homage and allegiance were due." (E.White, Patriarchs and Prophets, p.36)

John sees forward to the new earth and Sister White sees back to a time before this world was created. And who do they see on the throne? A 'triune god'? NO, they see God the Father and Jesus Christ the Son. Two divine beings and no more!

The apostle John was given a divine vision of the new earth and New Jerusalem where God will be worshiped by the whole universe. And who did John see in the New Jerusalem? A 'triune god'? No, He saw God the Father and Jesus Christ, the 'Lamb [Son] of God'. Now, Seventh-day Adventists know very well that Sister White was given visions from God and she saw things of heaven that most have not seen. Some of those visions concerned the divine throne of God before this world was even created. Now please have another careful read of the above statement. How many beings does Sister White see on the throne? Two! The Father and Son. She confirms that the glory of the Father "encircled them BOTH". The glory did not encircle three beings, but two. And Sister White also confirms that "NONE but Christ, the only begotten of God" could fully enter into the counsels of the Father.

Please remember friends - these writings are from divine visions and revelations! Which means these scenes are absolute truth, and cannot be changed or 'progress into different truth'.

Now let us confirm the above even more with other quotes from Sister White, before looking at more Bible texts.

"Can anyone consider the condescension of God in preparing the gospel feast, and its great cost, and treat the invitation slightly? No man, nor even the highest angel, can estimate the great cost; it is known only to the Father and the Son." (E.White, BEcho, October 28, 1895 par. 4)

"In the beginning the Father and the Son had rested upon the sabbath after Their work of creation. when the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them." (E.White, Desire of Ages, p.769)

"The broken law of God demanded the life of the sinner. In all the universe there was but one who could, in behalf of man, satisfy its claims. Since the divine law is as sacred as God himself, only one equal with God could make atonement for its transgression. None but Christ could redeem fallen man from the curse of the law and bring him again into harmony with heaven." (E.White, Patriarchs and Prophets, p.63)

"After the earth was created, and the beasts upon it, the Father and Son carried out Their purpose, which was designed before the fall of satan, to make man in Their own image. They had wrought together in the creation of the earth and every living thing upon it. And now God says to His Son, let us make man in our image." (E.White, Signs of the times, Jan 9, 1879, par.13)

"The plan of salvation devised by the Father and the Son will be a grand success." (E.White, Signs of the Times, June 17, 1903, par.2)

"In the bible every duty is made plain. Every lesson given is comprehensible. Every lesson reveals to us the Father and the Son." (E.White, 8T, p.157)

Dear friend, it is IMPOSSIBLE for the trinity or any variation of a triune god to be true. Why? Because God clearly revealed to the apostles and Sister White the true composition of the Biblical Godhead. That it consists of God the Father and Jesus Christ the Son, ALONE. Creation was undertaken by the Father and Son alone. Man was made in the image of the Father and Son alone. The plan of salvation was devised by the Father and Son alone. And the whole universe will worship the Father and Son alone when this world has been destroyed and made new!

Are we saying there is no Holy Spirit? No. There IS the Holy Spirit and we fully believe in the Holy Spirit. But NOT as the 'trinity god' teaching states. There are only TWO beings on the throne in heaven, the Father and His Son. The Holy Spirit is the Father's own divine Spirit, which He has GIVEN to His Son (Acts 2:32-33, Revelation 5:6). Please see our page WHO IS THE HOLY SPIRIT for more on this.

What do the Scriptures Say?

We cannot use Ellen White's writings alone, as these are 'extra light' to the main source, which is the very Word of God contained in the Bible. So let us take a look at what the Bible says concerning the true God.

1 Corinthians 8:6 ... 'But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; AND one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.'

John 8:16-18 ... 'And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.'

Revelation 5:13 ... 'And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.'

Proverbs 30:4 ... 'Who hath ascended up into heaven, or descended? who hath gathered the wind in his fists? who hath bound the waters in a garment? who hath established all the ends of the earth? what is his name, AND what is his son's name, if thou canst tell?'

Romans 1:7-8 ... 'Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ. First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all.'

2 John 1:3 ... 'Grace be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.'

Luke 10:22 ... 'All things are delivered to me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.'

John 17:3 ... 'And this is eternal life, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.'

1 John 1:3 ... 'Truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.'

Yet again, as you can clearly see, the scriptures reveal that there are only two divine beings in the Godhead - the Father, who is the only true God, and Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father. You will not see the apostles worshiping and giving praise and honor to 3 beings. No, they only ever praise and worship the Father and Son.

Commonly Misunderstood Verses

So what about those verses which trinitarians use to support their belief in the trinity or '3 in 1 god'? Well, there are only a few verses, and they are very easily explained. Let's take a look at those verses used.

Matthew 28:19 ... 'Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.'

Some people say that this verse is not inspired and should not be in the Bible. We will treat this verses as if it is inspired. So first of all, where does Jesus mention the word 'God' here? It's not there. So clearly, this verse is not telling us who God is. Which means we need to use scripture with scripture to find out who these 'three' are. So who is the 'FATHER'? John 17:1-3, 1 Corinthians 8:6 and 1 Timothy 2:5 confirms that the Father is the one true God. Who is the 'SON'? 2 John 1:3, Mark 3:11, Romans 8:3 and 1 John 4:15 confirms that the Son is Jesus Christ the Son of God the Father. And who/what is the 'HOLY SPIRIT'? John 20:19-22, Galatians 4:6, Joel 2:28 and 1 Peter 1:11 confirms that the Holy Spirit is in fact the Spirit and power of God the Father and Jesus Christ. It is THEIR OWN divine Spirit and power, NOT another being.

John 20:19-22 says that Jesus breathed the Holy Spirit onto the disciples before His ascension back to heaven. Now why and how would Jesus breath 'another person' onto the disciples? This is ridiculous! No, the Holy Spirit is clearly God's and Christ's OWN Spirit. So Jesus is not telling us who 'God' is in Matthew 28:19. He is merely telling us the '3 powers' which are involved in transforming people into followers of Christ. And those '3 powers' are God the Father, Jesus Christ the Son of God, and the Father and Son's own divine Spirit.

The original Hebrew and Greek meaning for 'Spirit' is 'breath, mind and power'. So by giving us their Spirit, they are giving us their own LIFE! Not just some 'force', but their own MIND and LIFE!

John 14:16 ...'And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever.'

This is possibly the favorite verse for trinitarians, and yet they ignore the context and clear meaning of what Jesus was saying here. Let's look at the context ... John 14:16-23 ...'And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. I will not leave you comfortless. I will come to you. Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also. At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you ... Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world? Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.'

Friend, do not focus on the fact that Jesus said 'He' referring to the Comforter. In John 17:1-2 Jesus talks about HIMSELF as 'He' and 'Him' when praying to the Father. When you look at the context of John 14, you can clearly see that Jesus was talking about HIMSELF as the Comforter, not another 'third being'. The disciples even understood this fact with Judas asking Jesus how He would manifest HIMSELF to them.

The Greek word for 'Comforter' in John 14 is 'Parakletos'. And 1 John 2:1 confirms that our 'Parakletos' (advocate/comforter) is JESUS CHRIST the righteous! Not another 'third being'

1 John 5:7 ...'For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.'

This is a verse that is heavily disputed as not being inspired, but again, for the sake of some who will not accept that, we will treat this verse as being inspired. In John 8:16-18 Jesus confirms that His 'witness' is not alone, because He and the Father (only two beings) bear witness together. These are Jesus' own words. So why would 1 John 5:7 seem to indicate that there are 3 divine beings in heaven? Well, if you take this verse on it's own, then it would seem that way. But any good Christian will tell you that you need to compare scripture with scripture to get to the truth. And what does scripture tell us about the Spirit, as we have already mentioned? It is the God's and Christ's OWN divine Spirit.

Notice that Jesus here is called 'the Word'. This is because the focus here is around God the Father, the one true God. There is God the Father. There is the Word of God the Father, which is Jesus Christ His Son. And there is the Spirit of God the Father, which is HIS OWN divine Holy Spirit. Two beings - three powers!

So as you can see, these commonly used verses to support the trinity do not prove anything regarding a '3 in 1' or 'triune' god. And they can be explained in light of the context in which they are spoken, and in light of the rest of scripture.

Does it Really Matter?

I often hear the question ... "does it really matter if I worship the trinity?" ... Well, think about it friend, this is the very core of our faith - who we worship. There is no more important a truth than who we worship. So if you are not worshipping the true God of the Bible, the Father, then you have a big problem. Not only that, the trinity teaching does away with the Sonship of Jesus Christ. The Bible and Spirit of Prophecy clearly tells us that Jesus Christ is the literal only begotten Son of God who 'came forth from the Father' BEFORE this world was created. And what does the Bible say regarding those who reject 'Father and Son'?

1 John 2:22-23 ... 'Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.'

The trinity teaching denies a literal Father and Son. Therefore the trinity is an 'ANTICHRIST' teaching!

Does it really matter? Of course it does. It matters a great deal! You see, Satan wanted to be 'like the Most High', as Isaiah 14 confirms. He wanted to ascend to the throne of God and be like God himself. This is where Satan fell into sin and ended up being cast out of heaven. So what does he do? He invents a 'new god', a 'third god' into the true Godhead, and deceives the world into worshipping this new 'third god', so that ultimately, he would receive the adoration from the world that he craves.

Friend, Satan invented the trinity god and he used his main church, the Roman Catholic Church (Babylon) to spread this false god throughout the world, and now virtually the whole world has united with Rome through this false trinity god, and Satan is ready to act out his final deception upon a sleeping world!

If you continue to worship the trinity god and reject the truth, then you will receive the mark OR name OR number of the beast!
